AT THE CASINO

Beginning Monday night, The Fays will give the first of a series of entertainments at the Casino. That it is a weird and mystifying exhibition that they give is evident from the press notices which The Fays have received elsewhere. They are evident from the press notices which The Fays have received elsewhere. They are not new-comers in this field, but have been many years before the public as demonstrators of the phenomena that puzzles their audiences. Some call it spiritualism, some theosophy, but the Fays declare that the results they attain are due to perfectly natural forces and means, though they are as yet imperfectly understood.
